India 21 December 2016: Runwal Group, a well-established name in the real estate arena organised a Christmas Carnival for the families of Runwal Greens on December 18. Runwal Greens is a premium project spread over 22 acres of land in Mulund. The Central Ground of the project dazzled with joyous fervour amidst live music, dance, food & fun activities. More than hundred families were part of the event. The Carnival also gave the families, who have just moved in, an opportunity to get introduced to each other.

All and all, a fulfilled evening with lots of activities for the children and adults to enjoy like Live band, Dance performances, Games, Bangle making, Tattoo art, Pot making, Darts, Mini golf, Astrologer, Caricature artist, Magician / Mascots like Mickey Mouse, Chota Bheem etc. Apart from these, families were served with delicious food to relish.

Speaking about the celebration, Ms. Lucy Roychoudhury, VP, Sales & Marketing, Runwal Group said, "We wanted to give our customers a feeling of belongingness and what could be a better occasion than Christmas. Christmas is a celebration which brings the entire family together. At Runwal Group, we have always taken efforts to provide a better lifestyle for our customers, be it comfort or an emotional connect. The response we got from the families at Runwal Greens is heartwarming.
